The Saturday program includes an optional tour of the Wallaceburg Museum (from 10-12 am), lunch, a theme table, a show and tell table featuring different types of lighting and a silent auction. The guest speaker for the meeting will be Sid Lethbridge, a member of Glasfax, speaking on the topic of "Canadian Glass". The HLSC optional dinner will follow the meeting. Room trading on Friday and Saturday nights is encouraged.

All attendees are requested to register in advance for the meeting. Early bird registration fees, for those who register before April 8th, are $30 for lunch and the meeting, or $35 for the meeting and dinner, or $65 for the lunch, meeting and dinner. After April 9th, the registration fees will be $35 for lunch and the meeting, $40 for the meeting and dinner, or $75 for the lunch, meeting and dinner. The Wallaceburg museum entry fee is included in the price of the meeting. To register, please contact David Smuck at 519-656-2889 or e-mail him at smuckd@sympatico.ca for further details.

HLSC is sponsoring the fourth in a series of informal Friday evening seminars for anyone interested in kerosene lighting. The topic of this seminar will be "An Introduction to Coleman Lamps and Lanterns", presented by Stan Walker and Tom Logan. This free seminar will be held at the Oaks Inn in Wallaceburg, on Friday evening, April 22, 2010, at 7:30 pm. This seminar is open to the public, and a membership in the HLSC is not a requirement to attend this meeting. For questions about the HLSC or to reserve a spot in the seminar, please contact either Stan Walker at 877-867-0666 or Tom Logan at 877-654-6333, or send an e-mail to lampcollector@gmail.com.
